Extract (Grade 3)

Q.1.

Paragraph 1

Last summer, Emma and her family went to a cabin in the mountains for their vacation. The cabin was nestled among tall pine trees, and a clear, sparkling stream flowed nearby. The air was fresh and cool, and the sound of birds singing filled the mornings.

Paragraph 2

Emma's father, Mr. Johnson, was tall with a friendly smile. He wore a blue baseball cap and enjoyed fishing in the stream. Emma's mother, Mrs. Johnson, had short brown hair and was always busy making sandwiches for everyone. Emma had a golden retriever named Max, who loved running around and playing fetch. Emma spent her days hiking with her family and exploring the forest. At night, they sat around a campfire, roasting marshmallows and telling stories.

Paragraph 3

One afternoon, Emma discovered a hidden trail behind the cabin. She followed it and found a beautiful meadow full of wildflowers. She was excited to show her family the new place she had found.

Q.2.

Miss Honey's Home

Matilda saw a narrow dirt-path leading to a tiny red-brick cottage. The cottage was so small it looked more like a doll's house than a human dwelling. The bricks it was built of were old and crumbly and very pale red. It had a slate roof and one small chimney, and there were two little windows at the front. Each window was no larger than a sheet of newspaper and there was clearly no upstairs to the place. On either side of the path there was a wilderness of nettles and thorns and long brown grass. An enormous oak tree stood overshadowing the cottage. Its massive spreading branches seemed to be embracing the tiny building, and perhaps hiding it as well from the rest of the world.
