Extract (Grade 5)

Q.1.

Welcome to Olympus

Well, you are now in Ancient Greece, standing on my mountain. You had better come up.

No, I am not a ghost. NO, I am not a giant. I am a God.

Yes, a GOD!

Come up higher. Steep, isn't it? And the air is so thin, you may get out of breath. Take your time. I am in no hurry.

There! You made it! Welcome! Welcome to Mount Olympus!

Sit down! Choose a rock and make yourself comfortable.

And now I will tell you who I am...

I am Zeus, the great god, Zeus. Zeus, the all-bright, Zeus, the bringer of light.

Yes, I am Zeus, and I rule above all other gods and goddesses.

There now, up in the sky are two of my children: Apollo wheeling the sun away till tomorrow morning, and Artemis rolling out the moon.

And the winged horse over there?

That's Pegasus.

He takes me in my chariot wherever I want to go. I'll tell you more about him and Apollo and Artemis later.

Q.2.

Jack and the Beanstalk

Scene1 In the garden, outside Jack's house

Jack and his mother are wearing old clothes. Their house is old. They are standing in the garden outside their small cottage.

Beans Trader comes on stage

Beans trader: Good day, young man. Are you taking the cow to the market? Is it for sale?

Jack: Yes.

Beans trader: I have just left the market as I couldn't find a cow to buy. Today must be my Lucky Day!

Jack: How much will you give me for her?

Beans Trader (looks at the cow): Something even more precious than money... MAGIC BEANS! Plant them tonight and all your wishes will come true.

He hands over the beans.

Jack: Wow, thank you! Please take care of her.

Beans trader and cow exit stage.

Jack(happy): I think it must be my Lucky day!

Scene 3 At Jack's house

There is a kitchen table. Jack is seated on a chair and his mother is standing over him, holding the beans.

Jack's mother (shouting and cross): YOU DID WHAT?!

Jack: I thought you'd be happy Mother!

Jack's mother (shouting and cross): Happy? HAPPY? You've sold our precious cow for some colourful ... BEANS?
